DIAMONDFIELD JACK DAVIS BACK IN THE FLESH TO DENY REPORT THAT HE WAS SLAIN IN MEXICO

"Diamondfield" Jack Davis, mining expert, rancher, cowboy and soldier of fortune, is in Salt Lake City. Some months ago the Salt Lake Tribune basing its story upon dispatches from Mexico and other points effectively disposed of Mr. Davis. It is related that Mr. Davis had been placed against an adobe wall in the wilds of Mexico and shot full of holes by a federal firing squad.

In view of the fact that Davis arrived in the city yesterday from New York and registered at the Semko hotel, it would appear that the Tribune's surmise as to his lucky star was correct.

Davis said last night that if the federal in Mexico could have had their own way, the report of his death would have been correct. He was a sympathizer with the rebels, but he had kept his own counsel. A federal officer, however, planned the destruction of Davis and several companions, but Davis was advised of the scheme by a peon, and he and his comrades made their escapes. They traveled by night and rested by day until they crossed the American border and were safe among their own people.

Mr. Davis is still largely interested in southern Sonora. He owns a large ranch there and also is interested in valuable mining claims, but he says he will not return until the country is safe for Americans.

Since his fortunate escape from Mexico, Mr. Davis has visited the Porcupine mining district in Canada and also has done a large amount of development work upon mining claims which he owns in Arizona. He still claims Nevada as his home, however, as it was there that he made his first start toward a big fortune. Mr. Davis was a pioneer of the famous Goldfield camp and much of the success of the district was due to his energy and personality.

Yesterday afternoon Davis called upon Judge O. W. Powers and the two men spent a pleasant hour together. Years ago Judge Powers prosecuted Davis on a charge of murder in Idaho and secured a conviction. Davis was charged with the murder of two sheepherders, the men having been killed from ambush. Everybody knew Davis took the ground that he would never have killed the men except in self defense in a fair fight, and after his conviction a more thorough probe of the matter was made. Judge Powers, after looking at the matter from all angles, reached the conclusion that Davis had been wrongfully convicted, and gave valuable assistance in securing a complete exoneration and pardon for him. Since then the two men have been fast friends.

Mr. Davis said last night that he would, in all probability, make his future headquarters in Salt Lake.

DEATH HAS $10,000 FIRE WITH LITTLE INSURANCE

NO FIRE FIGHTING APPLIANCES LEAVES SPECTATORS POWERLESS TO HELP.

Death was visited by a destructive fire Sunday morning, entirely consuming the two saloon buildings just east of the McCall-Smiley store, the loss being estimated at $10,000, with an insurance of less than half that amount. The fire broke out shortly after midnight in the rear of Mahoney Bros. saloon, and was first seen by one of the men who occupied a room in the building. The alarm was given, and the people turned out to help, but as they had no fire fighting apparatus except buckets passed from hand to hand, the fire was soon beyond control and spread to the adjoining building owned by Henry Voight of this place, and used as a saloon by D. K. Nickols. Attention was then turned to saving the McCall-Smiley store, that was just across the alley.

Everything in the two saloon buildings was consumed, as was the ice house that adjoined the Mahoney building in the rear. There was $2500 insurance on this building, and but $1800 on the Voight building.—Elko News.

---how much Is A "Regular Customer" Worth to Your Store?

Suppose you could BUY 100 additional REGULAR CUSTOMERS during the next week or two—customers who, for years and years to come, would make a MAJORITY of their purchases of goods in your line at YOUR STORE?

What would each of these 100 customers be WORTH to you?

It is, we think, quite likely that if such an investment were possible, you'd eagerly pay TWICE AS MUCH as it would cost you to secure these 100 REGULAR CUSTOMERS through an advertising campaign big enough and aggressive enough to really make people ACQUAINTED with your store!
